- (3) No shares shall be transferred to any person who is not of legal age or has mental incapacity or other legal incapacity.

CHAPTER 4 – SHARE CERTIFICATES

24. The shares in the Company shall be in the form of registered share certificates. Share certificates are signed and issued by the Company evidencing the holding of shares by a shareholder. The Company may, in accordance with the relevant regulations, issue share certificates in paper form, and the share certificates shall contain matters prescribed by the Company Law and the rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed.
25. Share certificates shall be signed by the chairman. If the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed requires the signature of other officers of the Company, the share certificates shall also be signed by other relevant officers. A Share Certificate shall become effective after it is affixed with the Company Seal or machine-printed seal. The Company Seal shall only be affixed upon the directors' authorization. The signatures of the directors of the Company or other officers on the share certificates may also be machine-printed signatures.

26. Any shareholder who is registered on the register of shareholders or any person who requests his name to be entered into the register of shareholders may, if he has lost his share certificate (the "original certificate"), apply to the Company for a new certificate in respect of the shares relating to that share certificate (the "relevant shares"). A holder of domestic shares who has lost his share certificate and applies for a replacement to be issued, shall comply with the provisions of Article 150 of the Company Law. A holder of overseas listed foreign shares who has lost his share certificate and applies for a replacement to be issued may do so in accordance with the laws and the regulations of the stock exchange or other relevant stipulations of the place where the register of overseas listed foreign shareholders is placed.

A holder of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong who has lost his share certificate and applies for a replacement to be issued shall comply with the following procedure:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in the standard form prescribed by the Company accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, the contents of which shall include:
 - (i) the grounds upon which the applicant makes his application, the circumstances of the loss of the original certificate, and such other particulars as the actual circumstances may require in order to verify the grounds upon which the application is made; and
 - (ii) a declaration that no other person is entitled to be registered as a shareholder in respect of the relevant shares.
- (2) Prior to the issue of a replacement share certificate, the Company must ensure that no other declaration has been received from any person other than the applicant seeking to be registered as a shareholder in respect of those shares.
- (3) If the Company is prepared to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, it shall make an announcement of such intention at least once every 30 days in a period of 90 days prior to the issue in such publications as may be prescribed by the board of directors for this purpose. The prescribed publications shall be one Chinese and one English publication in Hong Kong.

(4) In order to render an announcement under paragraph (3) above effective, the Company shall, prior to publication of the announcement:

(i) deliver to the stock exchange on which the relevant shares are listed a copy of the announcement to be published under paragraph (2) of this Article and receive a reply from such stock exchange confirming that the announcement proposed to be published is being exhibited on the stock exchange and will continue to be exhibited until the expiry of the 90-day announcement period referred to above; and

(ii) in the case of an application made without the consent of the registered holder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send to such registered shareholder by post a copy of the announcement proposed to be published.

(5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3), (4) of this Article, the Company shall not have received any objection to the issue of the replacement share certificate, the Company may issue a new share certificate for the relevant shares to the applicant or to such person as he may direct.

(6) When the Company issues a new share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original certificate and enter the details of the cancellation and replacement issue in the register of shareholders.

(7) After the Company has issued a new replacement share certificate in accordance with this Article:

(i) the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the new share certificate or a person whose name is subsequently entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the relevant shares (if a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders;

and

(ii) the Company shall not be liable for any damages suffered by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original certificate or the issuance of the new share certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company had acted fraudulently.

- (8) All expenses of the Company relating to the cancellation of an original certificate and the issuance of a new share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Company is entitled to refuse to take any action before reasonable security is provided by the applicant in respect of those expenses.

CHAPTER 5 – REPURCHASE OF SHARES

27. The Company may, upon obtaining approval in accordance with these Articles and the approval of the relevant PRC supervisory authorities, repurchase its issued shares in the following circumstances:
- (1) to cancel its shares for the purpose of reducing its share capital
 - (2) to merge with another company which holds the shares of the Company;
 - (3) under other circumstances permitted by law and administrative regulations.
28. The Company may upon obtaining the approval of the relevant PRC supervisory authorities repurchase its own shares by one of the following methods:

- (1) by way of an offer to repurchase in the same proportions made to all the shareholders;
- (2) by repurchasing those shares on a stock exchange by public transaction method; or
- (3) by entering into an off-market agreement to repurchase.

29. When the Company repurchase its own shares by an off-market agreement it shall obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a shareholders general meeting in accordance with these Articles. If prior approval of the shareholders is given in such manner, the Company may release or vary any contract so entered into by the Company or waive its rights thereunder. A contract to repurchase shares includes (but is not limited to) a contract to assume of the Company.

30. The Company shall not assign an agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any of the rights provided in that agreement.

31. Unless the Company has commenced liquidation, the Company shall repurchase its shares in accordance with the following provisions:

- (1) where the Company repurchase its shares at its nominal value, the moneys may be paid out of the distributable profits of the Company or the proceeds of an issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing those shares;

(2) where the Company redeems or repurchases its shares at a value in excess of their nominal value, the payment of the portion being the nominal value of those shares may be made out of the distributable profits of the Company or the proceeds of an issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing those shares. Payment of the portion in excess of the nominal value shall be effected as follows:

(i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at nominal value, payment shall be made out of the distributable profits of the company;

(ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium, payment shall be made out of the distributable profits of the Company or the proceeds of an issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing those shares, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the issue of new shares shall not exceed the aggregate of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the amount in the share premium account (or capital reserve fund) of the Company (including the premiums of the new shares issued);

(3) the monies paid by the Company for the following purposes shall be paid out of the Company's distributable profits:-

- (i) the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
- (ii) the variation of the agreement to repurchase its shares; or
- (iii) the release of any of its obligations under any agreement to repurchase;

(4) the amount paid out of the distributable profits of the Company for the repurchase of shares shall., after deduction from the Company's registered capital, be credited to the share premium account (or capital reserve fund) of the Company.

32. Shares lawfully repurchased by the Company shall be cancelled within the time limit prescribed by law or administrative regulations and an application shall be made to the original companies registration authority to change the registration of the registered capital. The Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the aggregate nominal value of the cancelled shares.

CHAPTER 6 – FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF SHARES

33. The Company and its subsidiaries shall not in any way provide any financial assistance to a person who purchases or proposes to purchase the shares of the Company. The aforementioned purchaser of the Company's shares includes a person who directly or indirectly assumes obligations by virtue of such purchase of the Company's shares.

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not at any time and in any way provide financial assistance for the purpose of reducing or discharging the obligations of the obligor referred to above.

34. "Financial assistance" referred to in this chapter includes (but is not limited to) financial assistance provided by way of:-

A Shareholder proposing to attend the shareholders meeting shall deposit at the Company a written reply confirming his attendance 20 days prior to the holding of the meeting.

The Company shall, according to the written replies received 20 days prior to the holding of a shareholders general meeting, calculate the number of shares carrying the right to vote represented by the shareholders proposing to attend the meeting. If the number of shares carrying the right to vote represented by the shareholders proposing to attend the meeting reaches half of the total number of shares of the Company carrying the right to vote, then the Company may hold the shareholders general meeting; if that number is not reached, the Company shall within 5 days notify the shareholders again of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting, the date and place of the meeting by way of public announcement, and after such public announcement, the Company may hold the shareholders general meeting.

52. A notice of a meeting of shareholders shall:-

- (1) be given in writing;
- (2) specify the place, the date and the time of the meeting;
- (3) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide to the shareholders such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to exercise an informed decision on the matters proposed to be discussed. This principle includes (but is not limited to) when the Company proposes to amalgamate with another, repurchase shares, reorganize its share capital, or restructure in any other way, the details of the terms of and the contract (if any) for the proposed transaction shall be provided and the reason for and the effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) if any director, supervisor, manager or officer has a material interest in the matter to be discussed, disclose the nature and extent of his interests; if the effect of the matters to be discussed on such director, supervisor, manager or officer in his capacity as a shareholders is different from the effect on the other shareholders of the same class then such different from the effect on the other shareholders of the same class then such differences should be specified;

- (6) contain the text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (7) contain conspicuously a statement that a shareholders entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a shareholder;
- (8) specify the time and place for lodging the written replies and proxy forms.

53. In respect of holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong, notices of shareholders general meetings shall be served on all shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote thereat) by personal delivery or prepaid mail, and the address of the recipient shall be the address on the register of shareholders.

In respect of holders of domestic shares, notices of shareholders general meetings may be given in accordance with the foregoing provision or by way of public announcement. If the public announcement method is used, it shall be published on any one day within the period of 45 to 50 days prior to the convening of the meeting in one or more publications specified by PRC State securities regulatory authority. Once the notice is published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received notice of the relevant shareholders general meeting.

54. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any person entitled to receive notice to the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by such person shall not invalidate the meeting and any resolution passed at that meeting.

55. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether or not a shareholder) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him, and that proxy shall exercise the following rights in accordance with the authorisation of the shareholder.
 - (1) the same right as the shareholder to speak at a shareholders general meeting;

- (2) the right to demand a poll on his own or together with others;
and
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxies may only vote on a poll.

56. A shareholder shall appoint his proxy by an instrument in writing, signed by the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing. If the appointer is a legal person, then the instrument shall be under a legal person's chop or signed by its director or an attorney duly authorised in writing.

57. The instrument appointing the proxy shall be deposited at the legal address of the Company or such other place prescribed in the notice convening the meeting 24 hours prior to the holding of the relevant meeting or 24 hours prior to the time at which the poll is to be conducted. If the instrument appointing the proxy is signed by a person authorised by the appointor, the power of attorney or other document of authority under which the instrument is signed shall be notarised. The notarised power of attorney or other document of authority shall be deposited together with the instrument appointing the proxy at the legal address of the Company or such other place prescribed in the notice convening the meeting.

If a proxy is a legal person, its legal representative or such person authorized by resolution of its directors or other governing body to act its representative may attend at the general meeting.

58. Any form issued to shareholders by the board of directors to be used for appointing proxies shall enable the shareholder to freely choose to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against each resolution of the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that in default of instructions the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.
59. If, prior to vote being given, the appointor has died or has lost capacity or has revoked the appointment or has revoked the authority under which the proxy was given or the relevant shares were transferred, provided that no notice in writing of those matters shall have been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting, the vote of the proxy in accordance with the instrument of appointment shall remain effective.
60. Resolutions of shareholders general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To pass an ordinary resolution at a shareholders general meeting, more than one half of the votes held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favour of that resolution.

To pass a special resolution at a shareholders general meeting, more than two thirds of the votes held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders general meeting must be exercised in favour of that resolution.

61. When a shareholder (including his proxy) votes at a shareholders general meeting, he shall exercise his voting rights according to the number of shares carrying the right to vote held by him, each share shall have one vote.

62. Unless the following persons, either before or after any vote by show of hands, demand a poll, resolutions passed at a shareholders general meeting shall be put to vote by a show of hands:
 - (1) the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (2) at least two shareholders with voting rights present in person or by proxy; or

- (3) one or a number of shareholders or their proxies who alone or together holds 10 per cent or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at that meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman as to the manner in which a resolution has been passed based on the results of the show of hands and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact ,without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution at that meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who so demanded.

63. If the matter in respect of which a poll is demanded relates to the election of the chairman of the meeting or the adjournment of the meeting, the poll shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting decides, and the meeting may continue to proceed to discuss other matters, but the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of that meeting. The result of a poll shall be declared as soon as possible.

According to the Listing Rules of Hong Kong Stock Exchange, any shareholder must waive voting right as for some resolution\or limit and any shareholder may only vote in favor of(or against) a resolution matter. In case of any violation of such requirement or restriction, the votes cast by the shareholder (including its agent) shall be disregarded.

64. On a poll taken at a meeting. a shareholder (including his proxy)entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.
65. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.
66. The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolution of a shareholders general meeting:
 - (1) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;
 - (2) proposals formulated by the board of directors for distribution of profits and for making up losses;

- (3) appointment and removal of the members of the board of directors and members of the supervisory committee, their remuneration (including but not limited to remuneration payable upon loss of office as director or completion of term appointment) and method of payment;
- (4) annual budget and results, balance sheet, profit and loss account and other financial reports of the Company;
- (5) all matters required to be approved by a shareholders general meeting other than those required to be approved by way of special resolution under PRC laws, administrative regulations or these Articles.

67. The following matters shall be approved by special resolution of a shareholders general meeting:

- (1) the increase, reduction of capital and the issue of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) the issue of bonds of the Company;
- (3) the demerger, merger, termination and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendments to these Articles;
- (5) other matters which is considered by the shareholders general meeting by way of ordinary resolution to have potentially a material effect on the Company and should be approved by special resolution.

68. When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, shareholders holding 5 per cent or more of the total shares carrying the right to vote of the Company are entitled to propose to the Company in writing new matters to be considered. The Company shall include in the agenda of that meeting those matters contained in the proposal which are within the scope of the duties of the shareholders.

Any matter not set out in the notice convening an extraordinary general meeting shall not be decided at that meeting.

69. When shareholders requisition an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, the following procedure shall be observed:
- (1) Two or more of the shareholders which together hold 10% or more of the shares carrying voting rights at the proposed meeting may sign a written requisition in one or more counterparts in the same form and content, requiring the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting and stating the agenda of the meeting. The board of directors shall as soon as possible after receipt of the aforesaid written requisition convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting.

- (2) If the board of directors fail to give notice convening a meeting within 30 days of its receipt of the aforesaid written requisition, the requisitioning shareholders may on their own convene a meeting within 4 months of the receipt of such request by the board of directors. The procedures convening the meeting shall be as similar as possible to that of a shareholders general meeting convened by the Board.

All reasonable expenses incurred in relation to a meeting convened by the shareholders themselves by reason of the failure of the board of directors to convene a meeting pursuant to the request referred to above shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted directly from the monies payable by the Company to those directors who have breached their duties.

70. Shareholders general meetings shall be convened in accordance with these Articles and presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the vice-chairman of the board of directors shall convene the meeting and take the chair of the meeting. If both the chairman and the vice-chairman are both unable to attend the meeting, the board of directors may designate a director to convene the meeting and act as the chairman of the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting was so designated, the shareholders present at the meeting may elect a person to act as chairman, and if for any reason, the shareholders are unable to appoint a chairman of the meeting, the shareholder or his proxy present at the meeting holding the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote shall be the chairman of the meeting.

The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' meeting is passed. His decision shall be final and shall be declared at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

71. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the results of a resolution put to the vote, he may take a poll. If the chairman of the meeting fails to take a poll, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the results declared by the chairman of the meeting may demand a poll immediately after the declaration of results and the chairman of the meeting shall immediately take a poll.

72. If a poll is carried out at a shareholders meeting, the result thereof shall be entered into the minute book of the meeting.

The minutes of shareholders general meetings together with the attendance book signed by the shareholders present at the meeting and the instruments appointing the proxies present at the meeting shall be kept in safe custody at the registered address of the Company and shall not be destroyed for 10 years.

73. Shareholders may, during business hours of the Company inspect without charge copies of the minutes of shareholders' meetings. If any shareholder requests from the Company a copy of the relevant minutes, the Company shall send a copy to him by post within 7 days after having received reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 11 - SPECIAL VOTING PROCEDURES

RELATED TO DIFFERENT CLASS RIGHTS

74. A holder of different classes of shares is a different class shareholder. Different classes of shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with law, administrative regulations and the provisions of these Articles.

75. If the Company proposes to vary or abrogate the rights of the holders of any class of shares, the variation or abrogation must be approved by special resolution of a shareholders general meeting and by the affected class of shareholders at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 77 to 80 before it may proceed.
76. The following circumstances shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of a class of shareholders:
- (1) the increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class, or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of another class having voting or distribution rights or other privileges which are equal or superior to the shares of such class;
 - (2) the exchange of all or part of the shares of such class for shares of another class or the exchange of all or part of the shares of another class for the shares of such class or to grant a right to such conversion;
 - (3) the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends of such class of shares;
 - (4) the reduction or removal of a preferential right to dividends or to assets distribution upon liquidation of the Company of

- such class of shares;
- (5) the addition, removal or reduction of conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer rights or pre-emptive rights or rights to acquire securities of the Company of such class of shares;
 - (6) the removal or reduction of rights of such class of shares to receive moneys payable by the Company in particular currencies;
 - (7) the creation of a new class of shares having voting or distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;
 - (8) the imposing of restrictions or increase in restrictions on the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class;
 - (9) the issue of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
 - (10) the increase of the rights or privileges of another class of shares;
 - (11) the restructuring of the Company which results in different classes of shareholders bearing disproportionate responsibilities; and
 - (12) the variation or abrogation of the provisions of this Chapter

77. The affected class of shareholders, whether or not they originally have the right to vote at shareholders general meetings, shall nevertheless be entitled to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 76, but interested shareholders (s) shall have no voting rights at class meetings. The meaning of an “interested shareholder” aforesaid is as follows:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by the Company by way of a general offer to shareholders in the same proportions or on a stock exchange by public transaction method in accordance with Article 28 of these Articles, an “interested shareholder” refers to the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 46;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by the Company by an off-market agreement in accordance with Article 28 of these Articles, an “interested shareholder” refers to the shareholder to which the proposed contract relates; and
- (3) under a restructuring proposal of the Company, an “interested shareholder” refers to the shareholder who bears less than a proportionate responsibility than other shareholders of the same class or the shareholder who has an interest different from the interests of the other shareholders of that class.

78. Resolutions of a class meeting shall be passed if two thirds of the shareholders of that class are present (in person or by proxy) and have the right to vote under Article 77 votes in favour of the resolution.
79. When the Company convenes a class meeting, it shall give written notice 45 days prior to the date of the meeting and shall inform all the registered class shareholders of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders proposing to attend the class rights' shareholders meeting shall deposit at the Company a written reply confirming his attendance 20 days prior to the meeting.

If the number of shares carrying the right to vote represented by the shareholders proposing to attend that meeting reaches half of the total number of shares of the Company carrying the right to vote, then the Company may hold the class meeting; if the number is not reached, the Company shall within 5 days notify the shareholders again of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting, the date and place of the meeting by way of public announcement, and after such public announcement, the Company may hold the class meeting.

Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Class meetings shall be conducted as close as possible to shareholders general meetings. The provisions of these Articles relating to shareholders general meetings shall apply to class meetings.

80. Apart from ordinary and preference shares, domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares are regarded as different separate classes of shares.

The special voting procedures related for class shareholders shall not be applicable to the following:

- (1) upon approval by special resolution of the shareholders general meeting, the Company issues domestic shares or overseas listed foreign shares separately or concurrently at 12 months intervals and the number of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares to be issued do not exceed 20% of the number of the respective type of shares already in issue;

- (2) the Company completes its plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at its incorporation within 15 months from the date of approval by the State Council Securities Commission.

CHAPTER 12 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

81. The Company shall have a board of directors which is responsible for reporting on its work to shareholders.
82. The Board comprises 11 directors, of which there are at least two non-executive directors (independent directors). All directors shall be elected by the shareholders general meeting. A director shall be elected from the candidates nominated by the last Board of Directors or a shareholder representing over 5%(including 5%) of the issued shares by the shareholders general meeting. The shortest period for the written notice on the intent of the relevant nominated director candidate and its willing expression on nomination acceptance shall not be less than 7 days. The period will be started to calculate since the shareholders general meeting sends meeting notice and it shall not be later than the time 7 days before the holding of the shareholders general meeting.

- (9) to appoint and dismiss the general manager of the Company and according to the nominations of the general manager, to appoint and dismiss the deputy-general managers, financial controller and other officers, and to determine matters relating to their remuneration;
- (10) to formulate proposals for amendments of these Articles, subject to compliance with the provisions of Article 8 and Chapter 10 of these Articles;
- (11) to formulate the basic management structure of the Company;
- (12) to file a petition for the winding up of the Company;
- (13) to decide on the level of wages and salary and welfare and award schemes of the Company;
- (14) to establish the internal administrative framework of the Company;
- (15) to decide on other major business and administrative matters of the Company which are not required by these Articles to be resolved at shareholders general meetings;

- (16) to decide in the creation of special committees and to appoint and dismiss the relevant persons in charge;
- (17) other powers conferred by shareholders general meetings and these Articles.

Resolutions passed by the board of directors in respect of items (5), (6), (7) and (10) above shall be passed by two thirds or more of the directors voting in favour thereof. In respect of other matters, resolutions shall be passed by more than one half of the directors voting in favour thereof.

86. (1) The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company if the aggregate of:
- (i) the value of the fixed assets proposed to be disposed of, and
 - (ii) the consideration received by the Company on the disposal of fixed assets within the period of four months immediately preceding the proposed disposition, exceeds 33 per cent of the value of the Company's fixed assets as shown in the last balance sheet placed before the shareholders.
- (2) The validity of a disposition of fixed assets by the Company shall not be affected by the breach of paragraph (1) of this Article.

- (3) For the purposes of this Article, a disposition of fixed assets includes an act involving the transfer of an interest in certain assets but does not include the provision of security in the form of fixed assets.

87. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least twice every year and convened by the chairman, provided that interim meetings of the board of directors may be convened in any of the following circumstances:

- (1) when deemed necessary by the chairman;
- (2) upon requisition by more than one third of the directors jointly or by the general manager.

88. A meeting of the board of directors shall only be held if more than one half of the directors are present. Each director shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have an extra vote.

89. Meetings of the board of directors shall in principle be held at the legal address of the Company provided that meetings of the board of directors may be held at any other place within or outside the PRC if the board of directors so resolves.

90. The expenses incurred by the directors in attending board meetings shall be borne by the Company. These expenses include transportation fees between the location of the director and the place of meeting (if at a different place) and charges for accommodation and meals, rental for the venue of board meeting and local transportation fees during the period of board meeting.
91. Meetings of the board of directors shall be conducted in Chinese, and, if necessary, a translator may be present to provide Chinese-English simultaneous translation.
 - (1) No notice shall be required to be given if the time and place of ordinary meetings of the board of directors have been fixed by the board of directors in advance.
 - (2) If the board of directors have not determined in advance the time and place of a meeting of the board of directors, the chairman shall at least notify all directors of the time and place of the board meeting by telex, telegram, facsimile, express delivery, registered mail or personal notification not less than 10 days and not more than 30 days before such meeting.

- (3) The notice shall be in Chinese and, where necessary, have attached thereto an English notice and shall include an agenda of the meeting and proposed resolutions.
- (4) If a director has attended a meeting and has not protested that notice of the meeting had not been received prior to the meeting or at the time of his attendance, a notice shall be deemed to have been sent to him.
- (5) Any ordinary or interim meetings of the board of directors may be held by telephone conference or similar communication equipment. During such meeting, so long as all directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with other directors, all such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

93. Directors shall be responsible for the resolution of the board of directors. Directors participating in any resolution of the board of directors which contravenes law, administrative regulations or these articles and causes serious losses to the Company shall be liable to compensate the Company, but if it is proved that a director has stated his objection at the time the vote was taken and a record thereof was made in the minutes of the meeting, that director shall be relieved of his liability.

94. Resolutions passed at a meeting of the board of directors and written resolutions of the board of directors shall be recorded in Chinese.
95. Minutes of every meeting of the board of directors shall be presented to all directors for review soon as possible.
96. Unless otherwise provided by the board of directors, a general manager who is not a director may attend meetings of the board of directors and is entitled to receive notices of such meetings and the relevant documents. However, unless the general manager is also a director, he shall not have the right to vote at meetings of the board of directors.
97. The board of directors may pass written resolutions in lieu of convening meetings of the board of directors. However, the draft of such resolutions shall be sent to every director by either personal delivery, post, telex or facsimile. If a resolution has been sent to all directors, and signatures of approval is obtained by the number of directors required to pass that resolution and sent to the secretary by one of the foregoing methods. then that resolution shall be a directors' resolution and a meeting of the board of directors need not be held.

98. (1) A meeting of a board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. A director who is unable to attend a meeting of the board of directors for any reason may in writing appoint other directors to attend the meeting on his behalf. The written appointment shall specify the scope of authorization in detail.
- (2) The representative attending the meeting shall exercise the rights of the director who appointed him within the scope of authority conferred by such director.
- (3) If a director fails to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at that meeting.
99. If a director is interested in a resolution of the board of directors, he shall abstain from voting. He shall not be counted in the quorum of directors present at the meeting.
100. The board of directors shall cause minutes to be kept of decisions made in relation to matters considered at the meeting, and the minutes shall be signed by directors attending the meeting and the person recording the minutes.

101. The board of directors shall have one chairman and 1 to 2 vice-chairman. The chairman and vice-chairman shall be appointed and dismissed by more than half the number of directors. The vice-chairmen shall assist the chairman in his work and shall perform the duties of the chairman when the chairman is unable to perform his duties.

102. The chairman shall exercise the following powers and shall be assisted by the vice-chairman:

- (1) to preside over shareholders general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to inspect the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;
- (3) to participate in the meetings of the general manager's office and other important meetings of the Company and to provide guidance on important business activities of the Company when the board of directors is not in session;
- (4) to sign major contracts and other important documents of the Company or execute powers of attorney to authorise his attorney to execute such documents; and

(5) other powers conferred by the board of directors.

103. The board of directors may, if necessary, authorise the chairman of the board to exercise part of the powers of the board of directors when it is in recess. Members of the board of directors may act as general manager and other officers of the Company if so decided by the board of directors.

CHAPTER13 – COMPANY SECRETARY

104. The Company shall have a company secretary who shall be appointed and dismissed by the board of directors.

105. The company secretary is an officer of the Company, his primary responsibility is to ensure that the documentation and records of the Company are complete, to prepare and submit to the administration of industry and commerce authority and other competent authorities the required reports and documents, to ensure that Company's register of shareholders is properly maintained, to ensure that persons entitled to the relevant records and documents of the Company are promptly furnished with the same, and to discharge the obligations of a company secretary according to law and these Articles (including the reasonable requests of the board of directors) .

106. The directors shall appoint a natural person who they consider to have the requisite knowledge and experience to be the company secretary. One or two natural persons may act as the company secretary. If two persons are jointly appointed, the obligations of the company secretary shall be jointly borne by them; but any one of them shall have all the powers to act alone as the company secretary.
107. The company secretary shall prompt the Company to comply with the relevant PRC laws and the regulations of the stock exchange(s) on which shares of the Company are listed.
108. Directors or other officers of the Company may simulataneously act as company secretary. An accountant belonging to the firm of accountants employed by the Company shall not simulatenously act as company secretary. Where a director is also the company secretary, if an act is required to be done by a director and the company secretary separately, then that director who is also the company secretary may not perform the act in his dual capacity.

CHAPTER14 – GENERAL MANAGER

109. The Company shall have one general manager and several deputy general managers. The general manager and deputy general managers shall be appointed and dismissed by and shall be accountable to the board of directors. The deputy general managers shall assist the general manager in his work.
110. Unless otherwise prescribed in these Articles, the general manager shall exercise the following powers:
- (1) to be responsible for the production and operational management of the Company; to organise the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors and to report on his work to the board of directors;
 - (2) to convene and chair meetings of the general manager's office personally or appoint a deputy general manager to do so, meetings of the general manager's office shall be attended by the general manager, deputy managers and other officers;

- (6) to determine the imposition of any awards or penalties, promotion or demotion, increase or reduction in salaries/wages, appointment, employment, dismissal or resignation of staff and workers of the Company;
- (7) to represent the Company externally in handling business matters within the scope of the authority conferred by the board of directors;
- (8) other powers conferred by these Articles and the board of directors.

111. The general manager shall, in exercising his powers, comply with law, administrative regulations and these Articles, and shall act in accordance with his fiduciary duties and the duty to act diligently.

112. The general manager, deputy general managers and other senior officers shall give three months' prior written notice of resignation to the board of directors.

CHAPTER 15 – SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

113. The Company shall have a supervisory committee.

The supervisory committee shall consist of 5 supervisors, 2 of which shall be representatives of staff and workers who are elected and removed by the staff and workers of the Company and the others shall be elected and removed by the shareholders general meeting.

The supervisors shall be appointed for a term of three years, and may be re-elected to serve consecutive terms. The supervisory committee shall have one chairman, whose appointment and removal shall be decided by two thirds or more of the supervisors. The supervisory committee shall meet at least twice a year, the meeting shall be convened by the chairman of the supervisory committee.

114. All supervisors shall perform their supervisory responsibility honestly in accordance with law, administrative regulations and these Articles.

115. In addition to obligations imposed by law or required by the stock exchanges on which shares of the Company are listed, each supervisor has the obligation, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Company, to:
 - (1) act in good faith and honestly in the best interests of the Company; and
 - (2) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

116. Supervisors shall not undertake concurrently the duties of the directors, general manager or other officers of the Company, including but not limited to, the financial controller of the Company.

117. The supervisory committee shall be accountable to the shareholders general meeting and shall exercise the following powers in accordance with law:

- (1) to examine the Company's financial affairs;
- (2) to scrutinise as to whether the directors, manager and other officers have acted in contravention of law, administrative regulations, these Articles and the resolutions of shareholders general meeting in the performance of their duties in the Company;
- (3) if the conduct of a director, general manager or other officers is prejudicial to the interests of the Company, to require him to rectify such conduct;
- (4) to examine financial information such as the financial reports, business reports and profit distribution proposals which the board of directors proposes to submit to the shareholders general meeting, and in case of doubts, to appoint on behalf of the Company a registered accountant or auditor to assist in the an re-examination.
- (5) to propose to convene extraordinary general meetings;
- (6) to negotiate with the directors on behalf of the Company or to bring proceedings against the directors;
- (7) other powers stipulated in these Articles.

All supervisors shall have the right to be present in the directors' meetings.

118. Resolutions of the supervisory committee shall be passed by two-thirds or more of the supervisors.
119. All reasonable expenses incurred in respect of the employment of professionals such as lawyers, registered accountants or auditors as are required by the supervisory committee in the discharge of its duties shall be borne by the Company.

CHAPTER 16 – DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS AND OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

120. A person shall be disqualified from being a Director, supervisor or officer of the Company in any of the following circumstances:
- (1) a person with no capacity or has restricted civil capacity;
 - (2) a person who has been sentenced to punishment having committed the offences of corruption, bribery, taking of assets, misappropriation of assets or destruction of social and economic order or who has been deprived of his political rights having committed an offence and a period of 5 years has not elapsed since the completion of the term of the sentence.
 - (3) a person who was a director or factory manager or manager of a company or enterprise which was insolvent and liquidated because of unsound management and who had to bear personal liability for the insolvency of that company or enterprise, and a period of 3 years has not yet elapsed since the completion of insolvency and liquidation of that company or enterprise;

- (4) a person who was a legal representative of a company or enterprise, the business licence of which was revoked on the grounds of contravention of law, and bears personal responsibility therefore, and a period of 3 years has not yet elapsed since the revocation of the business licence of that company or enterprise;
- (5) a person who has failed to repay his larger debts when due;
- (6) a person who, because of contravention of criminal law, is under investigation by judicial authorities and the case has not yet been settled;
- (7) a person who is not eligible for enterprise leadership according to law and administrative regulations;
- (8) a person who is not a natural person;
- (9) a person who has been convicted by relevant supervisory authority of having contravened the provisions of the relevant securities laws and which involves fraudulent or dishonest acts on his part and a period of 5 years from the date of conviction has not yet elapsed.

121. The validity of an act of a director or officer on behalf of the Company vis-à-vis a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularity in his election or appointment or any defect in his qualification.

122. In addition to the obligations imposed by PRC law, administrative regulations or by the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which shares of the Company are listed, each director, supervisor, manager and other officer when exercising the powers conferred upon him by the Company owes to each of the shareholders the following obligations:
 - (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of the operations stipulated in its business licence;
 - (2) to act honestly in what he considers to be in the best interests of the Company;
 - (3) not to take in any manner the Company's property, including (but not limited to) opportunities beneficial to the Company; and
 - (4) not to take the personal rights of shareholders, including (but not limited to) distribution and voting rights, but not including a restructuring of the Company submitted to and approved by the shareholders general meeting in accordance with these Articles.

123. Each director, supervisor, manager and other officer has the duty, in the exercise of the powers and the discharge of his obligations, to exercise such care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

124. Each director, supervisor, manager and other officer has the duty, in the exercise of his powers conferred upon him by the Company, to observe fiduciary obligations and not to place himself in a position where his duty and his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (but is not limited to) the duty:

- (1) to act honestly in what he considers to be in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to exercise the powers vested in him for their intended purposes;
- (3) to exercise personally the discretion vested in him and not to allow himself to act under the direction of another person and, unless and to the extent permitted by law or with the informed consent of shareholders, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;

- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) except otherwise provided for in these Articles of with the informed consent of shareholders, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;
- (6) without the informed consent of shareholders, not to use the Company's, property for his own benefit in any manner;
- (7) not to use his position to receive or pay out bribes or other unlawful income, and not to take in any manner the Company's property, including (but without limitation), opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (8) without the informed consent of shareholders, not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transaction;
- (9) to comply with these Articles, to honestly perform his duties and protect the interests of the Company and not to use his position and powers to make profits;
- (10) without the informed consent of shareholders, not to compete with the Company in any manner;
- (11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or to advance to any other person the Company's funds, not to open in his own name or other person's name any bank account for the purpose of depositing any of the Company's assets; not to use the Company's assets to provide any security for any debt incurred by any shareholder of the Company or any other individuals;

(12) without the informed consent of the shareholders, not to disclose any confidential information related to the Company acquired by him during the term of his office; not to use such information other than for the purpose of furthering the interests of the Company, provided that he may disclose such information to a court or other governmental authorities in the following circumstances, if:

- (i) required by law;
- (ii) required in the interests of the public;
- (iii) required in the interests of such director, supervisor, manager or other officer.

125. In accordance with his fiduciary obligations, a director, supervisor, manager or other officer shall not cause a person connected with him to do what the director, supervisor, manager or other officer is prohibited from doing. "A person connected with a director, supervisor, manager or other officer" refers to:-

- (1) the spouse or minor child of that director, supervisor, manager or other officer;

- (2) a person acting in the capacity of trustee of that director, supervisor, manager or other officer or any person referred to in (1) above;
- (3) a person who is a partner of that director, supervisor, manager or other officer or any person referred to in (1) and (2) above;
- (4) a company over which that director, supervisor, manager or other officer, alone has de facto control or a company over which the persons referred to in (1), (2) and (3) above or other directors, supervisors, managers or officers, together have de facto control; or
- (5) a director, supervisor, manager or other officer of a company referred to in (4) above.

126. The fiduciary duty of a director, supervisor, manager or other officer does not necessarily cease with the termination of his tenure. The duty of confidence in relation to trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his term of office. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time lapsed between the termination of his term of office and the commission of the act concerned and the circumstances and terms under which the relationship with the Company was terminated.

127. A director supervisor, manager or other officer may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty by the informed consent of shareholders except in respect of circumstances specified in Article 125 of these Articles.
128. If a director, supervisor, manager or other officer has, directly or indirectly, a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement, entered into or proposed to be entered into with the Company (other than a contract of employment of the director, supervisor, manager or other office), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the board of directors as soon as possible, whether or not the above matters are normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless that director, supervisor, manager or other officer has disclosed his interests to the board of directors in accordance with the foregoing paragraph of this Article and the board of directors has not counted him in the quorum, and that matter has been approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which he has refrained from voting, the Company may cancel that contract, transaction or arrangement except as against a bona fide party thereto acting without notice of the breach of duty by that director, supervisor, manager or other officer. If a person connected with a director, supervisor, manager or other officer is interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement, that director, supervisor, manager or other officer shall also be deemed interested therein.

129. If a director, supervisor, manager or other senior officer gives to the board of directors a notice in writing before the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first considered, stating that, by reason of the contents specified in the notice, he is interested in the contract, transaction or arrangement proposed to be entered into with the Company, then the relevant director, supervisor, manager or officer shall be deemed to have made a disclosure under Article 128 within the scope specified in that notice.

130. The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor, manager or senior officer.

131. The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan or provide guarantee for a loan to its director, supervisor, manager or other officer or a director, supervisor, manager or other officer of its holding company; and shall not make a loan to or provide any guarantee for a loan made to a person connected with the aforesaid persons. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to the following circumstances:-

- (i) the provision of a loan by the Company to its subsidiary or the provision of a guarantee for a loan of the subsidiary;
- (ii) the provision by the Company to a director, supervisor, manager or other officer under an employment contract approved by the shareholders general meeting of loan or a guarantee for a loan or other funds to meet expenditure incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to properly perform his duties;
- (iii) where the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee for a loan to the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other officer or persons connected with them provided that the terms of the loan or guarantee for a loan shall be normal commercial terms.

132. A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be repaid forthwith by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

133. A guarantee provided by the Company in breach of the first paragraph of Article 131 shall not be enforceable against the Company, except in the following circumstances:

- (i) the lender was not aware of the circumstances at the time the loan was advanced to the director, supervisor, manager or other officer of the Company or its holding company;
- (ii) the security provided by the Company has been lawfully sold to a bona fide purchaser.

134. The meaning of a guarantee in the foregoing Articles of this Chapter includes an undertaking of responsibility of provision of property by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

135. In addition to the rights and remedies provided by law, where a director, supervisor, manager or other officer is in breach of his obligations to the Company, the Company has a right to take the following measures:

- (1) to claim damages from that director, supervisor, manager or senior officer in compensation for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;

- (2) to cancel any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with that director, supervisor, manager or other officer and by the Company with a third party (where such third party knew or other officer representing the Company was in breach of his obligations towards the Company);
- (3) to require the director, supervisor, manager or other officer to surrender the benefits obtained by the breach of his obligations;
- (4) to recover the monies received by the director, supervisor, manager or other officer which should have been received by the Company, including (without limitation) commissions;
- (5) to demand the return of the interest earned or which may have been earned by the director, supervisor, manager or other officer on monies which should have been paid to the Company; and
- (6) to institute legal proceedings for a declaration that the property acquired by the director, supervisor, manager or other officer in breach of his obligations belongs to the Company.

136. The Company shall enter into a contract in writing each director or supervisor in respect of his remuneration, with the prior approval of the shareholders general meeting. The aforesaid remuneration include:-

- (1) remuneration in respect of his service as director, supervisor or officer of the Company;
- (2) remuneration in respect of his service as director, supervisor or officer of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) remuneration in respect of other services provided in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (4) monies payable as compensation for the loss of office or retirement from office of that director or supervisor.

Except under a contract referred to above, a director or supervisor shall not bring proceedings against the Company for any benefit due to him in respect of the matters specified above.

137. The contract entered into between the Company and its director or supervisor shall stipulate that when the Company is about to be taken over, that director and supervisor is entitled, subject to obtaining the consent of his loss of office or retirement. The aforementioned taking over of the Company refers to any of the following circumstances:-

- (i) an offer made by any person to all shareholders of the Company; or

- (ii) an offer made by any person, the purpose of which is for the offeror to become the controlling shareholder, such controlling shareholder shall be defined as provided in Article 46.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with the provisions as stipulated in this article, then any moneys received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares by reason of their acceptance of that offer, and that director or supervisor shall bear the expenses incurred in distributing the money pro rata amongst those persons shall be borne by him and such expenses shall not be deducted out of those moneys.

CHAPTER 17 - PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

138. The profits of the Company after payment of the relevant taxes shall be applied in the following order:
 - (1) making up of losses;
 - (2) allocation to statutory common reserve;
 - (3) allocation to statutory provident fund;
 - (4) allocation to discretionary common reserve;
 - (5) payment of dividends in respect of ordinary shares.

The detailed distribution proportions in respect of items (4) to (5) above for any year shall be formulated by the board of directors in accordance with the operational conditions and development requirements of the Company and shall be submitted to the shareholders general meeting for approval.

139. No dividends shall be paid before the Company has made up its losses and has made allocation to statutory common reserve and statutory provident fund.
140. The Company shall allocate 10% of its profits after tax to the statutory common reserve; provided that no allocation is required if the statutory common reserve shall have reached 50% of the registered capital.
141. The Company shall allocate 10% of its profits after tax to the statutory provident fund.
142. The discretionary common reserve shall be allocated separately out of the profits of the Company in accordance with the resolutions of shareholders general meetings.

143. The following sums shall be appropriated to the capital reserve fund:
- (1) the amount of share premium arising from the issue of shares at a premium;
 - (2) other income required by the financial supervisory authority of the State Council to be appropriated to the capital reserve fund.
144. The statutory common reserve shall only be used for the following purposes:
- (1) to make up losses;
 - (2) to expand the Company's production equipment; or
 - (3) for conversion into share capital. The Company may, upon approval by a resolution of shareholders general meeting, convert its statutory common reserve into share capital and issue bonus shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their original shareholdings or increase the nominal value of each share. When converting the Company's statutory common reserve into capital, the amount of such reserve remaining unconverted must not be less than 25% of the registered capital.
145. The Company shall allocate monies to its statutory provident fund and apply the funds to the collective welfare of staff and workers.

146. Subject to the restrictions imposed by Articles 138, 139 and 141, dividends shall be paid proportionately to the shareholding of each shareholder, within 6 months after the end of each financial year.
147. The Company may distribute dividends by way of cash or bonus shares (or by a combination of both ways).
148. When distributing dividends to shareholders, the Company shall deduct therefrom the tax payable on dividend income in accordance with PRC tax law.
149. The Company shall appoint a receiving agent for holders of overseas listed foreign shares. The receiving agent shall receive on behalf of the holders of overseas listed foreign shares dividends declared and all other monies payable by the Company in respect of those shares.
150. The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall comply with the requirements of the law and the regulations of the stock exchange(s) of the place where the Company is listed. The receiving agent appointed by the Company for holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be a trust corporation registered under the Trustee Ordinance in Hong Kong.

151. The Company shall not exercise its powers to forfeit any unclaimed dividend in respect of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong until the expiry of the applicable limitation period.

The Company is entitled to send to a holder of overseas listed foreign shares by post if such warrants have been left uncaused on two consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

The Company may exercise the power to sell the shares of an untraceable holder of overseas listed foreign shares in a manner which the board of directors may think fit subject to the following conditions:-

- (i) during a period of 12 years at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed; and
- (ii) on expiry of the 12 years the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement published in a Chinese and English newspaper in Hong Kong and notifies the Exchange of such intention.

CHAPTER 18 – FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM AND INTERNAL AUDIT SYSTEM

152. The Company shall formulate its financial accounting system in accordance with the relevant requirements of PRC laws, administrative regulations and the PRC accounting principles formulated by the financial supervisory authority of the State Council.
153. The Company shall prepare a financial report at the end of every financial year and shall have it audited in accordance with law.
154. The financial year of the Company shall adopt the Gregorian calendar year, which is from 1st January to 31st December of each year.
155. The Company shall use Renminbi as the currency unit in its accounts, all accounts shall be written in Chinese.

156. The board of directors shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting a financial report required by the relevant laws, administrative regulations or normative documents promulgated by regional government and supervisory authorities to be prepared by the Company. The financial reports of the Company shall be placed at the legal office of the Company 20 days prior to the holding of the annual general meeting of the Company for inspection by shareholders.
157. The Company shall not keep separate books of accounts apart from the statutory books of account.
158. The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to complying with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards or accounting standards of the place at which the Company is listed overseas. If there shall be material differences between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the aforesaid two accounting standards, then those financial statements shall specify such differences. When the Company distributes the profits after tax in respect of the relevant financial year, the profits after tax shall be deemed to be the lesser of the amount stated in the two sets of financial statements.

159. If the relevant securities of the Company is permitted to be listed on the Exchange, during the period on which its securities remain listed, the financial statements placed before the shareholders shall, in addition to complying with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards of Hong Kong accounting standards. If there shall be material differences between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the aforesaid two accounting standards, then those financial statements shall specify the financial effects of such differences.
160. Any interim results of financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations also in accordance with either international or accounting standards of the place where the Company is listed.
161. The Company shall announce its financial and business reports twice in each financial year. The interim report shall be announced within 60 days after the end of the first six months of the financial year. The annual report shall be announced within 120 days after the end of the financial year.

162. Upon completion of the Company's interim reports and annual reports, the relevant procedures shall be effected and announcement be made in accordance with the relevant PRC securities law, regulations and the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company is listed.

CHAPTER 19 – APPOINTMENT OF ACCOUNTANTS

163. The Company shall appoint an independent firm of accountants which satisfy the relevant PRC requirements to audit the annual accounting report of the Company and to verify/audit other accounting reports of the Company.

The first accountants of the Company may be appointed at the inaugural meeting before the first annual general meeting and that firm of accountants shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If at the inaugural meeting the Company fails to exercise its powers stipulated in the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the board of directors.

164. The term of appointment of the firm of accountants appointed by the Company shall commence from the conclusion of the current annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

165. The firm of accountants appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:-

- (1) a right to inspect at all times to the books and records and certificates of the Company, and the right to require the directors, managers and other officers of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
- (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanations as are necessary for the purposes of performing their duties;
- (3) to attend shareholders general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, meetings which a shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any shareholders general meeting on any matter which concerns them as the firm of accountants of the Company.

166. If a casual vacancy arises in the office of accountants, the board of directors may prior to the holding of a shareholders general meeting appoint firm of accountants to fill the vacancy provided that during the continuance of the casual vacancy, if the Company has another firm of accountants in office, that firm of accountants may continue to act.
167. The shareholders general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the firm of accountants before the expiration of their term of office notwithstanding the terms of the contract between the Company and the firm of accountants. If the firm of accountants has any right to claim against the Company arising from the termination of their office, that right shall not be affected by that termination.
168. The remuneration and the method of remuneration of the firm of accountants shall be determined by the shareholders. The remuneration of the firm of accountants appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.
169. The appointment, removal, or non re-appointment of a firm of accountants by the Company shall be decided by the shareholders and reported to the State Council securities regulatory authority for record.

When a resolution is passed at a shareholders general meeting to appoint a firm of accountants not currently in office to fill a casual vacancy in the office of accountants, of to reappoint a firm of accountants which were appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove a firm of accountants before the expiration of their term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) The proposed resolution shall be sent, before notice of a shareholders general meeting is given, to the firm of accountants proposed to be appointed or proposed to leave office or which have left office in the relevant financial year. Leaving office includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the firm of accountants leaving office makes representations in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of its representations, the Company shall implement the following measures (unless the representations are received too late):

- (i) state in the notice given in connection with the resolution the fact that representations have been made by the firm of accountants leaving office;
 - (ii) send a copy of the representations to every shareholder entitled to receive notice of shareholders general meetings.
- (3) If the representations of the relevant firm of accountants have not been dispatched in accordance with (2) above, that firm of accountants may request that such representations be read at the shareholders general meeting and that it may make further submissions.
- (4) A firm of accountants leaving office shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:-
- (i) the shareholders general meeting at which his term of office would expire;
 - (ii) the shareholders general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the casual vacancy caused by his removal;
 - (iii) the shareholders general meeting convened as a result of his resignation.

The firm of accountants leaving office is entitled to receive all notices of and other correspondence relating to the meetings referred to above, and to speak at any such meeting on any matter which concerns them as former accountants of the Company.

170. If the Company removes or does not re-appoint the firm of accountants, it shall first notify the firm of accountants and the firm of accountants is entitled to make representations to the shareholders general meeting. A firm of accountants tendering resignation shall inform at the shareholders general meeting as to whether there is any misconduct on the part of the Company.

(1) A firm of accountants may resign from office by a notice in writing addressed to the Company's legal address, that notice shall contain either of the following statements:

(i) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with his resignation which he considers should be brought to the notice of shareholders or creditors of the Company; or

(ii) a statement of any such circumstances which should be accounted for.

Any such notice shall be effective on the date on which it is deposited at the legal address of the Company or on such later date as may be specified therein.

(2) The Company shall within 14 days acknowledge its receipt of the written notice referred to in (1) above and send a copy of the notice to the competent authority. If the notice contains a statement referred to in (1) (ii) above, a copy of that notice shall also be sent to every shareholder entitled to receive a copy of the Company's financial statements.

- (3) Where the notice of resignation of the firm of accountants contains a statement referred to in (1)(ii) above, he may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting to hear their explanation of the circumstances connected with their resignation.

171. The Company shall formulate its labour management, personnel management, wages and welfare and social insurance systems in accordance with PRC laws, regulations and the relevant administrative provisions.
172. In respect of all levels of management personnel, the Company shall adopt an appointment system and in respect of ordinary staff and workers, the Company shall adopt a contract system. The Company shall have autonomy in respect of the allocation of employees and has the right to recruit and dismiss management personnel, staff and workers in accordance with laws and regulations and the terms contracts.

173. The Company shall have the right to determine autonomously the levels of wages and welfare benefits for various levels of its management personnel and various types of staff and workers with reference to its own economic performance and within the scope of the relevant administration regulations.

174. The Company shall arrange for medical insurance, retirement insurance and unemployment insurance for its management personnel and staff and workers in accordance with the relevant local and central governmental administrative regulations and shall implement the laws, regulations and the relevant requirements in respect of labour insurance and labour protection for retired and unemployed staff and workers.

175. The Company shall protect the legal rights of workers, strengthen labour protection and implement safe production practices.

The Company will adopt various means to strengthen occupational education and on-the-job training of staff and workers of the Company and enhance the quality of staff and workers.

176. The staff and workers of the Company may in accordance with law, organise workers unions, carry out workers union activities and protect the lawful rights of staff and workers. The Company shall allocate a workers union fund and develop workers union activities in accordance with the relevant PRC laws.

177. When the Company considers issues involving the personal interests of staff and workers relating matters such as salary, benefits, production safety and labour insurance of staff and workers, it shall first consider the opinions of the Company's workers union and staff and workers and shall invite representatives of the workers union or representatives of the staff and workers to attend the relevant meeting. When the Company studies and decides on major issues relating to production and operation or formulates important regulations, it shall consider the opinions and suggestions of the workers union and of staff and workers of the Company.

CHAPTER 21 – MERGER AND DEMERGER OF THE COMPANY

178. When the Company merges or demerges, the board of directors shall produce a proposal, and after it is approved in accordance with the provisions of these Articles, the relevant approval procedures shall be effected. Shareholders who objects to the merger or demerger of the Company are entitled to require the Company or the shareholders who agree to the merger or demerger proposals of the Company to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of the Company's resolution to merge or demerger shall be contained in a specific document which shall be circulated to shareholders.

In respect of holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong, the document referred to above shall be sent by post.

179. The merger of the Company may adopt the methods of merger by absorption and merger by new establishment.

When the Company merges, all parties to the merger shall sign a merger agreement, and a balance sheet and list of property shall be prepared. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and shall make a public announcement at least 3 times within 30 days after the date of the resolution to merge.

After the merger of the Company, the rights and liabilities of the merging parties shall be assumed by the company continuing to exist after the merger or the new company which was established therefore.

180. When the Company demerges, its property shall be separated accordingly.

When the Company demerges, all parties to the demerger shall sign a demerger agreement, and a balance sheet and list of property shall be prepared. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and to make a public announcement at least 3 times in newspapers within 30 days of the date of the resolution to demerge.

The liabilities of the Company prior to the demerger shall be assumed by the companies after the demerger in accordance with the demerger agreement.

181. When the Company merges or demerges, in respect of the changes arising in respect of registered matters, a change of registration shall be affected at the companies registration authority in accordance with law. If the Company is dissolved, its registration shall be cancelled in accordance with law. If a new company is established, registration of such establishment shall be effected in accordance with law.

CHAPTER 22 – TERMINATION AND LIQUIDATION

182. The Company may be dissolved in any one of the following circumstances:

- (1) a shareholders general meeting resolves by special resolution to dissolve the Company;
- (2) if dissolution is necessary by reason of the merger or demerger of the Company;
- (3) the Company is declared insolvent in accordance with law because it was unable to pay its debts as and when due;
- (4) the Company was ordered to be closed down by reason of its contravention of law or administrative regulations.

183. If the Company is dissolved on the grounds set out in paragraphs (1) above, then it shall establish a liquidation committee within 15 days thereof, the choice of members thereof shall be determined by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders general meeting.

If the Company is liquidated on the grounds set out in paragraph (3) above, a liquidation committee comprising of shareholders, the relevant departments and relevant professionals shall be established by the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws to carry out liquidation.

If the Company is liquidated on the grounds set out in paragraph (4) above, a liquidation committee comprising of shareholders, the relevant departments and relevant professionals shall be established by the relevant supervisory department to carry out liquidation.

184. If the board of directors proposes to dissolve and liquidate the Company (other than at the liquidation of the Company because of a declaration of insolvency), the board of directors shall, in the notice convening a shareholders general meeting for this purpose, include a statement to the effect that, after having made full inquiry into the affairs of the Company, it is of the opinion that the Company will be able to pay its debts in full within 12 months from the commencement of liquidation.

Upon the passing of a resolution by the shareholders general meeting to commence liquidation, the powers of the board of directors of the Company shall cease.

185. The liquidation committee shall comply with the instructions of the shareholders, and report to the shareholders at least once a year on the income and expenditure of the liquidation committee, the progress of the Company's business and liquidation, and upon completion of liquidation to submit a final report to the shareholders.
186. The liquidation committee of the Company shall notify all creditors within 10 days following its establishment and within 60 days thereof publish at least 3 public announcements. The liquidation committee shall be responsible for the registration of the registration of creditor rights.
187. The liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers during liquidation:
- (1) to thoroughly examine the property of the Company and prepare respectively a balance sheet and list of property;
 - (2) to inform creditors by notice or public announcement;
 - (3) to dispose of and liquidate the relevant unfinished business of the Company;
 - (4) to pay all outstanding taxes in full;
 - (5) to settle claims and debts;

- (6) to dispose of the assets remaining after full payment of the Company's debts;
- (7) to participate in civil litigation activities on behalf of the Company.

After the liquidation committee has examined the property of the Company and prepared a balance sheet and list of property, it shall formulate a liquidation proposal and submit it to the shareholders general meeting or the relevant supervisory department for confirmation.

- 188. Members of a liquidation committee shall be faithful in the discharge of their duties and perform their liquidation obligations according to law.

Members of a liquidation committee shall not use their powers to accept bribes or other illegal income and shall not take the property of the Company. If a member of a member of a liquidation committee willfully or through gross negligence causes loss to the Company or its creditors, he shall be liable to make compensation.

- 189. If the Company is being liquidated because of dissolution and after the liquidation committee has examined the property of the Company and prepared the balance sheet and list of property, the liquidation committee discovers that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay its debts in full, it shall immediately suspend liquidation and apply to the People's Court for a declaration of insolvency.

190. Once the People's Court has declared the Company insolvent, the liquidation committee shall hand over to the People's Court all matters relating to the liquidation.

191. Liquidation costs, including remuneration payable to the members and advisors of the liquidation committee, shall be paid out of the assets of the Company before the claims of other creditors are paid.

192. Once the Company resolves to be liquidated, no one shall dispose of the assets of the Company without the permission of the liquidation committee.

During liquidation, the Company shall not carry on new operational activities. After the Company has paid the costs of liquidation, the liquidation committee shall settle the following in order of priority:

(1) to pay accrued wages and labour insurance premiums for employees of the Company in respect of the three-year period prior to the date of liquidation;

- (2) to pay outstanding taxes;
- (3) to pay the debts of the Company.

193. Any assets remaining after the payment of debts by the Company shall be distributed to the shareholders according to the class and proportion of shares held by them:

- (1) distributions to holders of preference shares be made in accordance with the nominal value of preference shares; if the capital of the preference shares cannot be paid off in full, distribution shall be made in proportion to their respective shareholdings;
- (2) distributions to holders of ordinary shares be made in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

194. After the completion of liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report and the income and expenditure account and financial books during the period of liquidation, and after they are verified by an accountant registered in the PRC, submit them to the shareholders general meeting or the relevant supervisory authority for confirmation.

The liquidation committee shall, within 30 days after obtaining confirmation from the shareholders general meeting or the relevant supervisory authority, submit the documents mentioned above to the companies registration authority to apply to cancel the registration of the Company, and to publicly announce the termination of the Company.

CHAPTER 23 – AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES

195. The Company may amend these Articles in accordance with law, administrative regulations and the provisions of these Articles.

196.
